Organisation Profile

Learning Hub Limerick (LHL) works in partnership with young people, their schools and their families to engage in learning for life in a non-formal environment. We also act as a community education service hub offering key facilities to many local organisations working with children, teenagers and adults in the community.

We add value to mainstream educational provision in targeted and innovative ways. Children spend only a fifth of their time at school and while we support schools to deliver high quality curriculum linked programmes the Learning Hub focuses mainly on providing active learning opportunities after school and during holiday times when schools are closed.
